If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; beich gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in time of war on the state militia and five minutes you wonder what became sremach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion: if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diaepsin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful-it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary .- advertisement.
